Dear Jeevanantham Balakrishnan

We have received your application for a National Insurance number.

Your application reference number is:
D3192563

What happens next

We aim to contact you within 4 weeks to tell you if we have approved your application.

We cannot give you an update on your application before the end of this 4-week period.

You can start work and get paid without a National Insurance number if you can prove you can work in the UK. Your employer might ask for proof of your right to work in the UK.
